AN ACT relating to elections; limiting initiative petitions to one subject; requiring an initiative petition to include a description of the effect of the initiative; requiring a signed acknowledgment of a registered voter to be included with a petition as a condition to counting the signature; requiring the description of an initiative to be approved by the Secretary of State before the petition is presented for signatures; requiring the Attorney General to review the description of an initiative that is rejected by the Secretary of State; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law requires that each bill enacted by the Legislature must address
2 only one subject and matters properly connected with the subject. (Nev. Const., 3 Art. 4, § 17) Existing law requires the Secretary of State to adopt regulations 4 prescribing the form of an initiative petition and the requirements concerning the 5 signatures on the petition. A copy of an initiative petition must be filed in the 6 Office of the Secretary of State before it is presented to the voters for their 7 signatures. (NRS 295.015-295.061)

8 This bill requires an initiative petition, like legislation, to address only one 9 subject and matters necessarily connected with that subject. An initiative petition 10 must include an explanation of the effect of the petition if approved by the voters.

11 This bill requires the Secretary of State to review the explanation of an 12 initiative petition before the initiative petition is presented to voters for their 13 signatures. If he determines that the initiative contains any false statements of fact, 14 he must reject the explanation. The person who filed the initiative petition may file
15 an appeal with the Attorney General if the explanation is rejected by the Secretary 16 of State.

17 This bill prohibits a county clerk from counting a voter's signature on an 18 initiative petition if the voter did not separately acknowledge that the explanation of 19 the effect of the initiative was made available to him before he signed the petition.
